Guest Speaker

American Lung Association

Matt Coyle

- Youth training August 21st – 23rd, 2020
 - Costs are covered
 - Includes lodging, activities and meals
- Grants

- Contact Matt Coyle directly, he can assist organizations in the “brainstorming” process, trying to determine what programs are already funded and what programs might be best received and approved prior to submission.
- If you are ready to apply for a community contract, you can apply directly to Tanny Dickerson Tanny.Dickerson@lung.org.
- Once the new application process has been solidified Matt Coyle will update the committee, but you can still reach out to him or Tanny in the meantime for assistance.
- Kick Butts Generation (KBG)
 - Can also apply for a mini-grant as there are additional opportunities for funding within the association to allow for events or activities to deter youth from smoking or participating in risky behavior.
 - KBG offers scholarships for college to high school students.
 - Youth leader stipend
 - Actively seeking partnerships
 - Volunteers available to be sent out and can assist with messaging, promoting at events or other ideas
 - Karen Johnston available to partner as well within these grant opportunities
